David - the Greatest King

- the secret of David's success must be sought in his personality. He made himself the living center of his people and of his kingdom. A born ruler of men, and possessed of a royal nature that attracted and led all that came within his influence, he awakened the national enthusiasm, and thereby overcame every obstacle. For David not only made Israel a nation, but also elevated it at once to the pinnacle of glory. Israel itself has felt this; and therefore the return of a David has become the dream of its future and the object of its most ardent hopes.

Eternal Covenant

- Psalm 89:35-37, Artscroll Tehillim,
- “One thing have I sworn in My holiness (set-apartness) —I do not lie to David. His seed will endure forever, and his throne shall be like the sun before Me. Like the moon, it shall be established forever--a faithful witness in the sky.”

His Son (Messiah) Will Reign

- In Jewish eschatology, the messiah is believed to be a future Jewish king from the Davidic line, who
 - will be anointed with holy anointing oil,
 - gather the Jews back into the Land of Israel,
 - usher in an era of peace,
 - build the Third Temple,
 - have a male heir,
 - re-institute the Sanhedrin and
 - rule the Jewish people during the Messianic Age.

The Millennium Reign

- We will be resurrected
- We will be living in the Land of Israel
- We will be subject to the laws (constitution) of the Kingdom of Israel
- Yeshua will be King of Kings
 - Will David be King over Israel?
 - or will they rule side-by-side?
- We will have work to do during the Millennium!

Tikkun Olam

- The Repair of the World, or Earth
- Tikkun olam is a Hebrew phrase that means "repairing the world" (or "healing the world") which suggests humanity's shared responsibility to heal, repair and transform the world.

What do you want to do?

- We will be given assignments on the earth during the Millennium to repair the world
 - based on our obedience and faithfulness to God and Jesus (Yeshua)
 - based on how well we know the Laws of Israel
 - there are different levels of responsibility - dependent on the above
- So what do you want to do during the thousand year reign?
